

January

- Approving the Margin Trading for ETFs

February

Expanding the number of stocks allowed to be traded with margin & intra-day trading

March

Cooperation between the European Bank to strengthen & rehabilitate SMEs companies

June

Doubling the intraday trading limit per security while allowing multiple trades after reaching the limit per security

September

Cutting circuit breaker trading halt time to 15 minutes down from 30 minutes

December

Accounting for the impact of cash dividends of trading halts

October

- Setting the requirements for the inclusion of IPO shares to the list of specialized activities after the IPO if they meet new criteria.

- Further reduction of trading halt time from 15 minutes to 10 minutes.
- Expanding price limits on companies subject to tender offers with a price outside price limit.

November

Extending intra-day trading mechanism to 160 from 104 stocks allowed to be traded with intra-day trading (intra-day traded expanded on list A&B)

January

- Allowing the market maker to register on one or more shares to allow the regulation of the short selling mechanism.
- Amending membership rules to be in line with the market maker operating rules for listed securities.
- EGX 30 Capped determined weights index has been launched for the 30 most active companies.

May

Selection of the securities that will be allowed for short selling

July

EGX & MCDR developed the omnibus account system

August

EGX 30 TR determined weights index has been launched for the 30 most active companies for total return.

November

- Add cash investment funds documents as collateral for margin trading
- Issuing executive procedures to record and execute the offering Public and Private

December

Activate the Short Selling mechanism

February

- EGX 70 EWI index has been launched for diversifying measurement tools.
- Launching Sectoral Indices to complete the comprehensive restructuring of market sectors.

- Allowing the ETF market maker to place orders with no minimum for quantities

March

- Development systems for all business continuity remotely with different market parties.
- Cancelling the circuit breaker mechanism when market goes up.
- Allow the brokerage firm to receive the clients' orders through e-mail or mobile text messages.

May

EGX 100 EWI index has been launched for diversifying measurement tools

August

- Creation new List "D".
- Standards development for securities selection eligible for short selling

September

Development of the omnibus accounts to allow institutions and investment funds to trade on SMEs market

October

More procedures to develop and grow the SMEs market