

With how much should I start investing and get an investor code?

At the beginning, you need to determine your financial requirements and the excess amount of money that you decide to start investing with.

You must choose the appropriate brokerage firm from the list of member firms available on EGX website.

The brokerage firm opens an account for you and notifies you with your unified code. With this code, you can invest with any amount you specify.